Prayer Everywhere's National Evangelist, Servant Minister Tony Adams, announces national recruitment project for the National Evangelism team.

By the power of God through the Holy Spirit, Servant Tony Adams was appointed in October 2016 by Bishop Sean Teal to lead the National Evangelism of Prayer Everywhere. Servant Adams has been an Exhorter on the National Prayer Call under the leadership of Bishop Teal since 2012. Adams is seeking servants to join him as they plant Prayer Everywhere partners across the globe in the soil of evangelism. "We will train and develop evangelists across the globe to lead prayer walks and sponsor prayer parties across the planet as we pray and evangelize the hemispheres," said Adams who said he is "baboon blessed, elephant excited, hippo happy, and orangutang overjoyed" for the appointment to this sacred role of National Evangelist for Prayer Everywhere .

“Our goal is to place in every city, in every state and every country an evangelist that lives out the mission and mandate of Christ found in The Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20 “Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.” Servant Adams who resides in Vallejo, Ca. said The National Evangelism office will be domiciled in Vallejo, CA with satellite offices in Germany, Atlanta and Tennessee.

God has given Servant Adams a gargantuan task through Bishop Sean Teal. Bishop Teal wrote recently in his letter of instruction to Servant Adams that the vision for the National Evangelist is to “enable and encourage the leadership of Pastor Tony as the national evangelist of Prayer Everywhere.” Bishop’s vision through Christ empowers an Ephesians 4:11 Evangelist. The goal of the National Evangelist is to take the Ephesians 4:11 mantra and live it out across the globe. Servant Adams has traveled extensively around the globe spearheading evangelistic projects in West Africa, South Africa, Nigeria, Haiti and has traveled to Israel on two occasions. He is also the current Director of Evangelism/Mission for the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Fairfield/Suisun City, California under the leadership of his Father in the ministry and Pastor, Dr. Claybon Lea, Jr.

Bishop Teal poured into Servant Adams the following pathway to reaching the lost at all cost through Prayer Everywhere:
